Personal data is processed in accordance with the Law of Georgia on Personal Data Protection and other applicable law.

By using the service, the user confirms their agreement with this Privacy Policy.

2. Collection of Information

To provide the services, the service may collect the following data:

- Steam login or profile link;
- email address for notifications;
- payment information, including the amount, date and status of the transaction;
- IP address, browser and device data, and technical information necessary for the security and proper operation of the website.

3. Use of Information

The data collected is used for the following purposes:

- processing payments and performing the Steam Wallet top-up service;
- sending notifications about the status of transactions;
- preventing fraud and abuse;
- improving the quality of the service and user support;
- complying with the requirements of applicable law.

4. Disclosure of Data to Third Parties

Data may be disclosed to third parties only to the extent necessary to provide the services and comply with legal requirements, including to:

- payment providers, for payment processing;
- technical and infrastructure contractors that ensure the operation of the service;
- government authorities and other authorised persons, where there is a lawful request;
- other persons, where necessary to fulfil the user's order.

Personal data is not sold and is not disclosed to third parties for their own marketing purposes.

5. Data Retention

Data is stored on secure servers for the period necessary to provide the services, fulfil contractual obligations, resolve disputes, prevent fraud and comply with legal requirements.

Unless otherwise required by law or by a legitimate business need, data may be stored for 3 years from the last transaction, or until a justified deletion request is received, if retaining such data is no longer required.

Payment information is stored to the extent and for the periods necessary to comply with the requirements of payment systems, providers and applicable law.

6. Security

Reasonable technical and organisational measures are applied to protect data, including:

- use of SSL/TLS encryption;
- restriction of access to data;
- monitoring of suspicious activity;
- measures to prevent unauthorised access to, alteration, disclosure or destruction of information.

However, no method of transmitting data over the internet or method of electronic storage can guarantee absolute security.

7. User Rights

In the cases provided for by applicable law, the user has the right to:

- request information about their personal data;
- require the correction of inaccurate or incomplete data;
- require the deletion of data;
- restrict the processing of data;
- object to the processing of data;
- lodge a complaint with the competent supervisory authority, including the Personal Data Protection Service of Georgia.

To exercise their rights, the user may contact the Operator using the contact details set out below.

8. Cookies
